Emma Jackson

Year 13, 2021

Within my last five years at Lincoln High School, I developed a sense of belonging and formed meaningful connections with my peers and wider community. The first year transitioning from primary to high school was more than I could expect. I was greeted by wonderful teachers and had a welcoming cohort. The school gives you a sense of belonging and supports you to establish meaningful friendships in our home class known as "Linc". Moreover, it helps guide you in who you choose to become and what you want to do in the easiest way possible. My high school experience has influenced my development as a person inside and outside of class by making me more independent but still have interpersonal and intercultural connections, and has also shape me into the person I have become. One of the reasons as to why I enjoyed attending Lincoln high was that it encouraged me to achieve personal excellence, and also developed a sense of service and belonging. In addition, I found that it fosters student leadership and provides a safe, positive, inclusive learning environment. It is here that students gain the knowledge, skills and personal qualities to choose their pathways in life. In addition, I still use the tikanga that they instilled in us – whakamana, whakapono, manaaki and manawaroa. They are values that I try to uphold in every aspect of life.

I have found that Lincoln High School offers its students a broad choice of subjects and activities in a supportive, caring, secondary school learning environment. My passion for drama was established in Year 9. I took the class because it wasn't an option in primary school – so I thought why not? I have taken the class for the past five years and I am extremely lucky with the staff and cohort that I was performing alongside. In saying this, the school provides several opportunities. Interested in coding? Try DTP class! Want to work on your public speaking skills? Try debating club! My advice; take opportunities that your future self will be thankful for. There is a proud sense of community among staff and students, and this is reflected in its record of academic, sporting and cultural successes like Kio-rahi, Kapa Haka and rugby.

The staff are a huge reason why I loved the school. They were open to all sorts of conversations and these helped grow my knowledge in so many different aspects of life and also piqued my interests. There is an infinite amount of knowledge across the subjects too and they love to sit down for a chat. The teachers and staff at Lincoln High School play a big part in furthering our education and equipping us for our future and whatever it may hold. They made moving to Lincoln so much easier than I expected and are still some of the coolest people I have ever encountered.

Overall, Lincoln High School has provided me several opportunities that I am grateful for. It has challenged, motivated and supported me in every way possible and has set me up for the many years lying ahead.

Gianni van Heerden

Finally high school! One of the best feelings I have ever felt but also very nerve-racking. Going from the oldest in school to the youngest is very scary, but I can assure you that it's really the opposite. Being in high school has been the best experience yet. On my first day I was introduced to my Linc class. I didn't know anyone at the time and felt scared and nervous but that's a completely different story now. Linc class is the class you go to get filled in with all the new changes around school and any important notices. It's also a time where you can catch up on work if needed. You will always be with the same Linc classmates and teacher until you reach the end of high school.

Lincoln High School offers a variety of different option subjects such as Agriculture & Horticulture Sciences, Financial Literacy, German and many more. Option subjects are classes that are optional, and you get to pick them. The great part of the option subjects is that you can choose the ones that relate to what you want to do later in life. Alongside option subjects, you have compulsory subjects Maths, Social Sciences, Science, English and Health and Physical Education. Lincoln High School also hosts house events. These events are usually around sport but also other things like the spicy noodles challenge and lip sync battle. My favourite house event is Athletics. Not only do you get to take part in fun sport like long jump and high jump, but there is also a food market put on by the Year 13 Business classes and they have some of the best tasting meals. Students are also able to participate in afternoon sport that usually takes place on a Wednesday. Term 1 and 4 offer many sports to take part in such as Surfing, Tennis, and Touch. Term 2 and 3 also offer many sports such as Basketball, Netball, Rugby, Football and Badminton. I personally enjoyed Surfing the most and it was a great experience.

I'm glad I came to Lincoln High School and really enjoy it here, hopefully you enjoy it just as much as I have!
